AURORA MAN GETS 27 YEARS IN PRISON FOR SEXUALLY ASSAULTING CHILD

August 4, 2017

A Kane County judge has sentenced an Aurora area man to prison for sexually assaulting a young child he knew.

Kane County Circuit Judge James C. Hallock today sentenced 24-year-old Orane R. Foster to 27 years' imprisonment in the Illinois Department of Corrections.

A Kane County jury on May 11, 2017, convicted Foster of four counts of predatory criminal sexual assault, each a Class X felony, and aggravated criminal sexual abuse, a Class 2 felony.

Kane County prosecutors presented evidence that between June 2015 and August 2015 Foster sexually assaulted the victim. Foster was living in Aurora with the victim and her mother at the time of the assaults, which occurred in their residence. The victim was younger than 12 years old.

In addition to the prison term, Foster must register for life as a sexual offender in accordance with the Illinois Sexual Offender Registration Act.

According to Illinois law, Foster must serve at least 85 percent of the sentence. He receives credit for 722 days served in the Kane County jail.

The case was prosecuted by Kane County Assistant State's Attorney Lori Schmidt and Nydia Molina, who are assigned to the Kane County Child Advocacy Center.
