McHENRY MAN GUILTY OF BATTERING 84-YEAR-OLD WOMAN AT ELGIN CASINO

August 23, 2017

A Kane County jury has convicted a McHenry man of battering an elderly person.

49-year-old Steven K. Henshall was convicted Tuesday, Aug. 22, 2017, of two counts of aggravated battery, Class 3 felony, and aggravated domestic battery, Class 4 felony.

Kane County Assistant State's Attorneys Bianca Camargo and Vincent Coyle presented evidence that at about 9:30 p.m. April 13, 2017, Henshall was at the Grand Victoria Casino in Elgin with the 84-year-old victim, whom he knew. When the victim told Henshall that she had misplaced an item, Henshall became angry and hit the victim with her wallet. He then grabbed her by the arm and they went into a restaurant, where he shoved her into a table and continued to pin her against the table. Two witnesses called authorities to report the abuse.

Associate Judge David R. Kliment set Henshall's next court appearance for 1:30 p.m. Sept. 22, 2017, in Courtroom 217 at the Kane County Judicial Center for motions and sentencing. Henshall faces a sentence of probation or between 2 and 10 years' imprisonment in the Illinois Department of Corrections.

Henshall remains in custody at the Kane County jail, where he has been held since his arrest in lieu of $40,000 bail. Bond was revoked upon conviction.

Steven K. Henshall: Age 49 (d.o.b. 12-22-1967), of the 3200 block of Still Hill Road, McHenry
