AURORA MAN GETS 22 YEARS IN PRISON FOR MURDER ATTEMPT WITH KNIFE

October 27, 2017

Kane County prosecutors have secured a lengthy prison sentence for an Aurora man who tried to slash a man to death with a knife.

Kane County Associate Judge David R. Kliment on Thursday, Oct. 26, sentenced 35-year-old Shaun J. Ramirez to 22 years' imprisonment in the Illinois Department of Corrections.

A Kane County jury on Aug. 17, 2017, convicted Ramirez of attempted murder, Class X felony; and armed violence, Class X felony.

Kane County Assistant State's Attorneys Lori Anderson and Matthew Rodgers presented evidence that at about 7 p.m. Dec. 21, 2016, the victim and Ramirez were talking outside Ramirez's home in the 1300 block of North Glen Circle. Ramirez, who was intoxicated, punched the victim in the mouth. As the victim began to walk away, Ramirez slashed the victim on the left side of his body with a knife. The victim wrestled Ramirez to the ground and they exchanged punches. The victim stood, told Ramirez the fight was over, walked to a friend's car got in a closed the door. Ramirez ran to the car, reached through the open passenger-side window and began to stab the victim in the face and throat. Ramirez then grabbed the victim's right arm and began to saw at it, cutting a large chunk from the bone and leaving a large hole in the arm. The driver finally left the scene and drove the victim to the hospital, where he was treated for life-threatening injuries.

The victim, who told police he believed Ramirez was trying to kill him, suffered significant injuries to his right arm, including detached tendons. He continues to recover but the attack most likely caused permanent damage.

Ramirez was on parole at the time of the attack for a 2014 Kane County conviction for aggravated battery. Ramirez has multiple prior convictions for violent offenses and has served at least three prior prison terms.

According to Illinois law, Ramirez must serve at least 85 percent of the sentence. He receives credit for 308 days served in the Kane County jail, where he has been held since his arrest in lieu of $750,000 bail.

“This was a vicious, chilling and nearly deadly attack. Mr. Ramirez is dangerous and belongs in prison. I hope this victim believes that justice has been served,” Kane County State’s Attorney Joe McMahon said. “Thanks to ASAs Lori Anderson and Matthew Rogers for their hard work in this case.”

Shaun J. Ramirez: Age 35 (d.o.b. 6-6-1982), of the 1300 block of North Glen Circle, Aurora
