ELGIN MAN CHARGED FOR FOURTH DUI BLOOD-ALCOHOL CONCENTRATION REGISTERS AT .364

May 8, 2018

An Elgin man faces felony charges for drunken driving for a fourth time, as well as misdemeanor offenses related to two crashes he caused.

Kane County prosecutors have charged 61-year-old Will Bingham, Jr., with two counts aggravated DUI, Class 2 felony, and two counts leaving the scene of an accident involving damage to an attended vehicle, Class A misdemeanor.

Kane County State's Attorney Joe McMahon alleges in charging documents that the morning of May 5, 2018, Bingham, who has three previous DUI violations and was under the influence of alcohol, was driving a black 1991 Cadillac in Elgin when the Cadillac struck and damaged a 1997 Toyota Camry at Kimball and North Spring streets and then failed to stop, and later struck and damaged a 2005 Scion at Kimball Street and North Grover Avenue and then failed to stop.

According to the Law Enforcement Sworn Report, Bingham was taken to the hospital. A blood draw indicated his blood-alcohol concentration was .364.

Bingham appeared May 6, 2018, in Kane County bond court. The judge set his bail at $150,000 with 10 percent ($15,000) to apply for bond. The judge set his initial court appearance for 9 a.m. May 10, 2018, in front of Circuit judge Donald M. Tegeler, Jr., in Courtroom 311 at the Kane County Judicial Center.

Bingham remains in custody at the Kane County jail.

The charges against Bingham are not proof of guilt. Bingham is presumed innocent and is entitled to a fair trial in which the state has the burden to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

Will Bingham, Jr.: Age 61 (d.o.b. 10-18-1956), of the 1000 block of Todd Farm Drive, Elgin, Ill.
