AURORA MAN GETS 28 YEARS FOR SEXUAL ASSAULT

August 16, 2021

A Kane County judge has sentenced 59-year-old Khamsaume D. Xayvong to 28 years in the Illinois Department of Corrections.

Kane County Judge David P. Kliment in February found Xayvong guilty of the offenses of aggravated criminal sexual assault/victim older than 60, Class X felony; and unlawful restraint, Class 4 felony. Xayvong waived his right to a jury trial.

Kane County Assistant State's Attorneys Lori Anderson and Katy Flannagan presented evidence during the trial that on July 6, 2019, Xayvong sexually assaulted the victim. Xayvong knew the victim.

Xayvong had faced a maximum sentence of 30 years of imprisonment on the Class X conviction.

In addition to the prison term, Xayvong must register for life as a sexual offender in accordance with the Illinois Sexual Offender Registration Act.

The sentence is 25 years for the sexual assault and 3 years for the unlawful restraint. According to Illinois law, Xayvong must serve at least 85 percent of the 25 years and is eligible for day-for-day sentencing on the 3 years. The terms are to be served consecutively.

ASA Anderson said:

"I have so much respect for this victim for the bravery she showed throughout this prosecution. This was a violent assault and yet she came to court and faced her attacker at every hearing, testified at the trial and was present at the sentencing. A special thanks to the Aurora Police Department for its thorough investigation and for its support and care during the prosecution."

Khamsaume Xayvong: Age 59 (d.o.b. 2-2-1962), of the 700 block of East Benton Street, Aurora, Illinois. Case No. 19CF1340.
