AURORA MAN GETS 18 YEARS IN PRISON FOR SEXUALLY ASSAULTING CHILD

May 5, 2022

Kane County State's Attorney Jamie L. Mosser announces that 29-year-old Rene Tux Ico has agreed to a sentence of 18 years of imprisonment in the Illinois Department of Corrections in exchange for a guilty plea to the offense of aggravated criminal sexual assault of a child, Class X felony.

Kane County Circuit Judge David P. Kliment accepted the plea.

Kane County Assistant State's Attorney Lori Schmidt stated in court that between June 2019 and July 2020, Tux Ico sexually assaulted the victim. Tux Ico knew the victim, who was younger than 18 years old.

In addition to the prison term, Tux Ico must register for life as a sexual offender in accordance with the Illinois Sexual Offender Registration Act.

Illinois law states that Tux Ico must serve at least 85 percent of the sentence. Tux Ico receives credit for 621 days served in the Kane County jail, where he has been held since his arrest in lieu of $1 million bail.

ASA Schmidt said:

"This defendant took advantage of a situation, raping a young family member who trusted him. The victim was new to the United States and highly vulnerable, yet the defendant thought only of himself, knowing his actions were criminal. He seemed more concerned about getting caught than his victim's well-being. I hope the victim feels that justice has been done. She has experienced a lot of trauma, particularly for someone her age. My thanks to the staff at Rush-Copley Medical Center in Aurora for recognizing that something was amiss and calling the police. Thanks also to Det. Jen Hillgoth of the Aurora Police Department, Kasandra Osorio, a forensic interviewer at the Kane County Child Advocacy Center, and victim advocate Cindy Barrett."

Rene Tux Ico: Age 29 (d.o.b. 3-30-1993), of the 400 block of Hinman Street, Aurora, Illinois. Case No. 2020CF1523.
