

Kane County State's Attorney's Office Social Media Comment and Terms of Use Policy:

This Facebook page is for the purpose of communicating information about the work of the Kane County State's Attorney's Office to the public. Comments posted by members of the public do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of the Kane County State's Attorney's Office.

Comments containing any of the following will not be permitted and are subject to removal:

1. Obscene, sexual, or pornographic content or language.
2. Content that promotes discrimination based on race, age, religion, gender, or any other protected status.
3. Content that violates any legal ownership interest such as copyright or trademark law.
4. Threats.
5. Conduct that violates, or encourages the violation of, any federal, state, or local law.
6. Commercial activity or promotion that is not related to the business of the Kane County State's Attorney's Office.
7. Spam or links to malicious programs or viruses.

This policy is notwithstanding any internal policies, monitoring, or terms of use of Facebook. The Kane County State's Attorney's Office reserves the right to report any violation of Facebook's terms of use to Facebook.

Users who enter private or personal information on the Kane County State's Attorney's Office's social media sites do so at their own risk, and the Kane County State's Attorney's Office is not responsible for any damages resulting from the public display of, or failure to remove, private or personal information. Content may be subject to disclosure pursuant to the Illinois Freedom of Information Act, and retention pursuant to the Illinois Local Records Act. This policy may be amended from time to time, without notice.